Class History

We began our Freshman year with 37 members. They were Larry Arndt, Richard Arttus, Larry Bever, Larry Berner, Judy Brandau, Verdell Beier, Lana Bolden, Patty Bray, Rick Buchholz, Linda Cox, Bonnie Creviston, Doug Devine, Helen Eckelberg, Ed Fick, Bob Granger, Shirley Hericks, Ted Kobernick, Delores Kratche, Don Kruse, Sandra Larson, Larry Leitz, Larry Lydon, Barbara Marco, Roger Martin, James Meseberg, Carol Noth, Roger O'Gara, Shirley Olson, Annette O'Rourke, Don Pasch, Carolyn Purpus, Howard Sandborn, Vivian Schendel, Barbara Tillman, Jerome Von Haden, Ted Welch, and Lowell Zellmer.

Patty Bray led our class as president, Larry Arndt, vice-president; Barbara Tillman, secretary; Shirley Hericks, treasurer; and our advisor was Mr. McCulloch.

Initiation was the big event of the year. Each student dressed as a famous person.

We started our Sophomore year with 40 members, Mayland Kannenberg, Russell Krahenbuhl, and Nils Vetra joined our class. Don Pasch left after a few months of school. Officers for the year were president, Larry Arndt; vice-president, Bonnie Creviston; secretary, Judy Brandau; treasurer, Barbara Tillman; and our class advisor was Mr. McCulloch.

Our Junior year left us with 35 members, Nils Vetra, Delores Kratche, Patty Bray, Barbara Tillman, Mayland Kannenberg, Carolyn Purpus, and Russell Krahenbuhl did not return. Juris Valters and Ida Whitcomb joined us.

Juris Valters was president, Rick Buchholz, vice-president; Judy Brandau, secretary; Ed Fick, treasurer; and Mr. McCulloch was our advisor.

Our Prom was held April 21. Ed Fick and Judy Brandau were king and queen. Larry Bever and Lana Bolden were prince and princess. The theme was "Shangri-La" with the Don Kaye Orchestra providing the music.

Our Senior year began with 31 members. Larry Leitz, Larry Lydon, Ida Whitcomb, and Annette O'Rourke did not return.

Vivian Schendel and Larry Arndt were chosen Badger boy and girl. They were also chosen Co-editors of our annual.

Class officers were for the year, president, Rick Buchholz; vice-president, Leon Schindler; secretary, Judy Brandau; treasurer, Vivian Schendel and our advisor Miss Bartol.

Larry Arndt and Lana Bolden were king and queen of our Homecoming. Rick Buchholz and Vivian Schendel were prince and princess. The Cavaliers provided music for an enjoyable evening.

Baccalaureate was held May 20th and we completed our education with our commencement exercises on May 25.

Will

We, the Senior Class of 1962, being of sound mind and memory do hereby publish and declare this to be our last will and testimony. We hereby will the following to the underclassmen and faculty of Wilton High:

We, the Senior Class, will our ability to be QUIET in Social Problems Class to the Juniors.

To the Sophomores we will the right to be Jolly Juniors - as we were!

To the little Freshman we will the hope of being Big Seniors someday.

To the incoming Freshman we will the fun and excitement of High School life.

To Miss Bartol we will more willing workers on the Annual Staff next year.

To Mr. Grossmann we leave our math books, bookkeeping assignments, and typewriters. In hopes that your future students will use them more.

To Mr. Herman we will the power of positive thinking. May it help you to win ALL the basketball games next year.

To Mr. Mayo we will a whole set of new jokes. The ones you've been telling are worn out.

To Mr. Moennig we leave our band instruments and singing voices. You will need them next year!

To Mr. Ray we will a new back so you can bend over and pick up your own paper.

To Mrs. Smith we will a long stick so you don't have to get up to wake the boys in study hall.

To Miss Thompson we leave all our forensics speeches. We're glad to get rid of them.

To Mr. Trough we will a better ability to hit ALL the pins when demonstrating how to bowl.

To the office personnel, janitors, and cooks we leave W.H.S. in peace and quiet.

I, Larry Arndt, will the ability to keep a good conversation going to Curtis Briske. Let's get talking Curtis!

I, Richard Artus, will the right to be the joker in Chemistry Class to David Raabe.

I, Verdell Beier, will my clowning ways to Lorrie Meacham. Let's try it Lorrie!

I, Larry Berner, will my ability to Rock 'n Roll to Gerald Harmel.

I, Larry Bever, will the fun that I have at parties to anyone that can take it.

I, Lana Bolden, will my ability to be on the Prom and Homecoming courts to Ruth Ferris. Let's march Ruth!

I, Judy Brandau, will my knack for being friendly to everyone.

I, Richard Buchholz, will my basketball ability to Jim Bever. Let's get shootin' Jim!

I, Linda Cox, will my big brown eyes to Beverly Bell. I hope you will be able to see things better than I did.

I, Bonnie Creviston, will my red hair to Elaine Pasch. On one condition, you give your pretty black hair to me.

I, Douglas Devine, will my little sister to anyone who will take good care of her.

I, Helen Eckleberg, will my quietness to anyone who can be as great a pretender as I.

I, Edward Fick, will my good looks to myself; after all they do belong to me!

I, Robert Granger, will my height to Adrian Nading. You need it to be a good basketball player, Adrian!

I, Shirley Hericks, will all my old boyfriends to anyone who needs them, since I don't think I'll be needing them anymore.

I, Ted Kobernick, will my ambition to get my homework done to Grayson Zuhlke. Let's not overdo it, Grayson!

I, Don Kruse, will my witty mind to Betty Burt. Make good use of it, Betty!

I, Sandy Larson, will my blush to my sister Sharon. It would be too cruel to wish it on anyone else.

I, Barbara Marco, will my love of Kendall and the boys there to Marilyn Purpus. Good luck, Marilyn!

I, Roger Martin, will my love for school and teachers to Charles Udulutch. I never did have much use for them anyway.

I, Jim Meseberg, will my ability to keep the road hot to Tomah to Jim Farmer. Step on it, Jim!

I, Carol Noth, will my popularity in Tomah to Sharon Dexter. Have fun, Sharon!

I, Roger O'Gara, will my industrious mind to Bob Pasch. Get busy!

I, Shirley Olson, will my blond hair to Patti Johnson. Mine's natural, Patti!

I, Howard Sanborn, will my reckless driving to Paul Meseberg. Don't take too many sharp curves, Paul!

I, Vivian Schendel, will my love for teasing a certain bookkeeping teacher to all his future students. Have as much fun as I did!

I, Leon Schindler, will my argumentive ways to Norbert Leis.

I, Bill Schriver, will my ability to pester others to my brother Dale. He's an angel now!

I, Juris Valters, will my traveling ways, especially to Milwaukee, to Lester Nauman. Now you're a "Traveling Man"!

I, Ted Welch, will my chemistry notebook to anyone who will fill it up. Believe me, you've got a lot of writing to do!

I, Lowell Zellmer, will my knack for finding fun outside of school to Duane Switz. Careful, Duane!

CLASS TESTATOR Vivian Schendel

Signed, sealed, published and declared as our last will and testament by the above class testator, in our presence.

Class Poem

Larry Arndt, our class devil,
In teasing girls loves to revel,
Full of mischief is he,
Always happy full of glee.

Richard Arttus, a chemistry pest,
Never gives Mr. Ray a rest.
Telling jokes he is the best
Around the girls he is full of zest.

Verdell Beier, in sports is a whiz,
But not so hot in taking a quiz.
In football he got banged around
Spent some time lying on the ground.

Larry Bever, our basketball star
Always going with his car.
The road to Tomah he keeps hot,
And keeps his girl in her spot.

Larry Berner, who likes to dance
Always known to take a chance.
He finds plenty uses
For making excuses.

Lana Bolden, our Homecoming Queen
Always smiling she is seen.
She keeps the boys in a whirl
A very nice all around girl.

Judy Brandau, quiet but OH MY!
She is going strong with a certain guy,
Always a smile for everyone
Happy, gay, and full of fun.

Rick Buchholz, quite a guy
Around the girls he isn't shy,
He goes with a certain girl
And she is always in a whirl.

Linda Cox, a friendly lass
Always keeps up with the class,
In Home Ec she is a whiz
And always tops in a quiz.

Bonnie Creviston, a red-haired lass
Keeps the laughter in our class.
She's lots of fun and friendly too,
And she's never sad or never blue.

Doug Devine, our class artist
In school work he tries his hardest,
In study hall he creates a fuss
Where Doug is, that's a must.

Helen Eckelberg, full of cheer
This is Helen through the year.
Somewhat quiet, somewhat shy,
She'll get over it by and by.

Ed Fick, our Prom King
Still possesses his class ring.
In class he tries to stay on top,
In working hard he doesn't stop.

Bob Granger, tall and thin
At basketball he likes to win.
He gives his girl quite a whirl
She is a lucky, lucky girl.

Don Kruse our class riot,
Is never known to keep quiet
Sometimes late for classes
In the rush he breaks his glasses.

Sandy Larson, always blushing,
To Home Ec she's usually rushing.
Smiling, happy, and full of fun
She's good medicine for everyone.

Barb Marco, her one ambition
Is to become a beautician.
Always happy with a grin
Barb's got what it takes to win.

Roger Martin, with no remorse,
Wants to join the Air Force.
His ambition is to be an M. P.
We'll just have to wait and see.

Jim Meseberg, our class shorty
Thinks his new car is kind of sporty.
With his hair dark and wavy
He'll go off and join the Navy.

Carol Noth, full of fun,
Is a friend to everyone
To be an office worker is her aim,
We hope that this will bring her fame.

Roger O'Gara, our quiet one,
Likes to have a lot of fun.
He wants to be an engineer,
And he'll succeed - never fear.

Shirley Olson, our class blond,
The girl of which we're very fond.
Stout Institute is within her reach
For Home Economics, she wants to teach.

Howard Sanborn, a freshman's ideal
In an argument he'll give you a deal.
An auto mechanic he'd like to be
But we'll just have to wait and see.

Vivian Schendel, our class brain,
Stout State College is her aim.
Comes the weekend she's never late,
He will never have to wait.

Lowell Zellmer, tall and lean
On the basketball floor is really keen.
He loves to drive his father's car
It will take him near and far.

Leon Schindler, quite a guy,
Around the girls he isn't shy.
Always causing lots of commotion
Leo's the one to start things in motion.

Bill Schriver, a comical lad,
One will never see him sad.
Bill is always in a tizzy,
To follow him would make one dizzy.

Juris Valters, a handsome lad,
Leaving school will make him glad.
Making noise and having fun
After all his work is done.

Ted Welch, who likes to drive,
To be a mechanic he will strive.
Ted is really very smart
Of the girls he wants no part.

Prophecy

The lounge of the Hotel Kickapoo Gardens was the scene of the reunion of the 1962 Wilton Alumni.

As we arrive in our taxi, driven by Robert Granger, who should we meet at the door; a great surprise but Rick Buchholz, who has been in France visiting Vivian Schendel, who is now a famous French Home Economics teacher. Vivian has acquired many high honors for her outstanding teaching ability.

As we walk into the lobby we hear an announcement by the doorman, Larry Berner. There is an emergency telephone call for Linda Cox and Larry was wondering if we had happened to have seen her. So we began to look for her through her friends and old classmates.

The first people we meet were two of her best friends, Sandy Larson and Helen Eckelberg. Sandy is a beautician at the famous salon, owned by Roger O'Gara in Chicago. Helen is married and is raising her family; and that, believe me is a job by itself.

Then we meet two pests of the class, Don Kruse and Jim Meseberg. Don has been married for four years. "Long Years," Don says. Poor old Don, he really seems hen-pecked. Jim Meseberg is the same old tightwad; but he's spending his money on his brand new home and "72" Ford. He is really enjoying life.

Next we meet the former Barb Marco and Carol Noth. They, too, are both married and are working also. Barb is a stenographer and Carol has her own Comedy Show on T.V. - The name, "Oh Carol." Be sure and tune in.

Edging our way through the crowd to our table, who should we come across, but the owner and his two assistants. The owner, who else but Doug Devine and the two assistants none other but his two best pals, Lowell Zellmer and Toby Bever. This is just what they always had in mind and see for yourself, "Where there's a will, there's a way!" Lowell and Toby are also assistant basketball coaches for the University of California. This isn't a surprise.

There stood a few of the old pals, Howard Sanborn and Teddy Koebernich. Howard owns his own huge dairy farm down in our own home state of Wisconsin. He really keeps himself busy farming and raising his family. Ted joined the Navy after he finished school and it sounds like he's going to make a career of it.

The waitress came in, guess who, Shirley Olson. She must like waitressing as she's still sticking to the same type of job she had in high school. But her main occupation is being a Home Economics teacher and she says she is soon taking her trip around the world.

Bonnie Creviston was there too. Bonnie is now working in a department store in Milwaukee. Sounds like she is one that sticks close to home too. But she is enjoying life to the utmost.

Roger Martin was next in line. He owns a farm and is an auctioneer along the side. He always was quite a fast talker. But you haven't heard anything yet!

We finally got to our table. Brother, what a conversation they were having. Larry Arndt, Eddie Fick, Ted Welch and Verdell Beier were discussing those good old high school days. Larry is a doctor and Eddie is a pharmacist in a neighboring town. Verdell is selling "72" cars and Ted has a filling station, following in his father's footsteps.

When it was time for some entertainment, things sure quieted down. Shirley Hericks is singing in the gigantic place. She's been singing for the past five years and really enjoys her work. Her home is in Beverly Hills, just in case you might like to drop in on her.

Lana Bolden lives down the street from her and fashions most of her clothes too. Lana also has her own art show. She keeps herself busy.

Judy Brandau is now teaching a kindergarten class on the other side of town. She's enjoying her life like the rest of them. Seems like these three girls really get around.

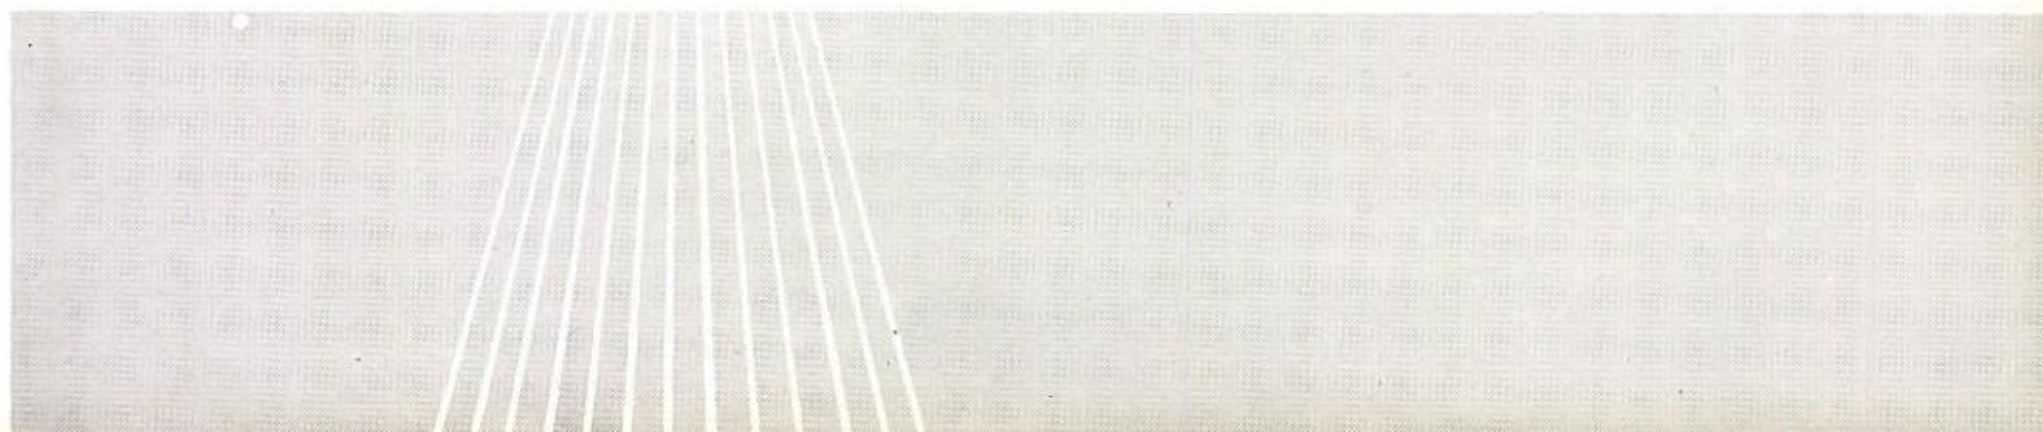

Linda's message was that her car was parked in front of a fire hydrant. Goodness, Linda, being a Driver's Education teacher could have avoided that.

Seems to all the Seniors of the 1962 class, it was a most enjoyable evening, especially being able to see all of the old classmates and finding out just what they are doing to occupy their time.

I hope we all can meet again someday in the following years and to have as much fun as we have had yesterday, tonight and tomorrow.

Prom

Our Junior Prom was held in the Wilton Gym April 21, 1961. Royalty for the evening were Queen, Judy Brandau; King, Edward Fick; Princess, Lana Bolden; Prince, Larry Bever. Miniature King and Queen Barb Creviston and Kurt McCulloch. Other court representatives were Freshmen, Jody McGarvey, and Randy Stoda. Sophomores, Judy Buchholz and Paul Kruse, and Seniors, Pam Liefke and Dave Bromley.

The gym was decorated in an oriental fashion depicting our theme "Shangri-La!". Music was furnished by Don Kaye and his orchestra.

Homecoming

The Senior class took charge of festivities for the 1961 Homecoming. Lana Bolden was crowned queen at the bonfire. She selected Larry Arndt as her escort. The queen and her court led the parade. The F.H.A. took first place with their float "We'll Cage the Cardinals". Wilton played host to the Bangor eleven. This resulted in a victory for the Warriors. Queen Lana and King Larry lead the Grand March at the dance which concluded the festivities. Music was provided by the Cavaliers.

Attendants were: Rita Bray and Jim Masters, Sandy Hilliard and Bill Schriver, and Patti Sullivan and Paul Kruse. Prince and Princess were Rick Buchholz and Vivian Schendel.

We, the students have had to toil
 To make our yearbook a success.
 But because of you so loyal
 It's printed, published, sold, WE REST.

You the people who've financed it,
 You receive our thanks full due.
 And especially, you've enhanced it,
 Mr. Ad. Man, we thank you.

So with this thought firm in mind,
 You'll find from us, you need not fear.
 We neither ask or beg a dime,
 That is, we add, until next year.
